LiveFull Daily M'Cheyne Reading Plan

The M'Cheyne Bible Reading Plan gives four Scripture readings each day—guiding you through the Old Testament once and the New Testament and Psalms twice in a year (or longer if you choose the “self-paced” plan).

Robert Murray M'Cheyne, a young 19th century Scottish pastor renowned for his pursuit of holiness, created this plan to help his church read the whole Bible, save them the wasted time of choosing what to read every day, and promote unified reading among families and churches. At the same time, M'Cheyne warned against the dangers of formalism and carelessness that could accompany a structured plan.

He wrote, “Some, when they have devoted their set time to reading of the Word, and accomplished their prescribed portion, may be tempted to look at themselves with self-complacency ... Few tremble at the Word of God. Few, in reading it, hear the voice of Jehovah, which is full of majesty. Some, by having so large a portion, may be tempted to weary of it, as Israel did of the daily manna ...”

To keep you from slipping into dry formalism, here are four practices to help your soul stay awake to the glory of God and the wonders of his Word:

1. PRAY

Before reading the Bible, go to God in a short time of prayer and remember whose Word you are reading. Ask God to open your eyes that you may behold wondrous things out of his law (Psalm 119:18).

2. LISTEN

As you read the Bible, listen carefully and receive every word as coming from the God of Life. “For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword” (Hebrews 4:12).

3. APPLY

After reading the Bible, select a smaller passage that the Spirit highlighted and journal on it. Write thoughts to the following questions: What does the passage say? What does the passage mean? How does God want me to apply this passage?

4. PRAY

Before leaving your time with God, bring your heart to him in prayer. Ask the Holy Spirit to grow and change you through this deeper understanding of his word.
